Council Recommends Probation Amendment

The Student Council yesterday afternoon drafted ASB President John Aitken's proposed "probation amendment" recommendation to the Constitution Committee which is scheduled to begin revamping the constitution in the near future.

The amendment suggested to the committee stipulates that "any student holding an elective or appointive student body office must be on clear scholastic standing."

Provisions included in the suggested by-law amendment are that it will affect ASB organizations only and that any student going on probationary status after taking an office while on clear standing will resign from his position.

ASB Vice President Bill Eckert earlier questioned the action of the Student Court in handing down an opinion on the recent Rally Committee case involving the appointment of Lon Manning to an assistant yell leader post in violation of a council recommendation. The Court felt that students on probation were eligible to hold student body offices since such cases are not covered by the present constitution.

Stan Croonquist, chief justice of the Court, explained that the judicial body had given this opinion in response to an indication of general interest in the matter although no official request for it had been made.

Aitken commented that the Court "is a judicial, not a fact-finding body." Dave Doerr, senior class representative, stated that he believed that such action of the Court "has been long needed because many students are interested in hearing its opinions without having to go through legal proceedings to get them."

The Council also approved the SJS-COP student relations pact submitted by Aitken. Aitken stated that the pact was made in a "calm, thoughtful atmosphere" and that it attempts to carry out the main purpose of maintaining good inter-campus relations without "pinning anybody down."

In discussing the pact, Aitken explained that the provision for disciplinary action to be taken by the home school of any students defacing the property of the other college would entail punishments such as limitation of ASB card use, curtailment of library privileges or the withholding of grades.

UNITED PRESS ROUND-UP

LA Negotiating for Cable Cars; McCarthy To Speak on Lincoln

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10 — A Los Angeles group today approached Mayor Elmer T. Robinson regarding the possibility of purchasing and operating the city's cable car system.

A wire to the mayor from Frederic A. Chase, Los Angeles public relations man, asked him to "put a price" on the San Francisco Cable Car System, complete and in operation, including the recently shut down Jones St. line.

Chase's wire said he represented a group "interested in including cable ride privileges, as a souvenir, on national rail and airline tour tickets to California destinations."

He asked for "an early reply on whether negotiations might have a chance of success" and offered to meet with the mayor at his convenience.

The city supervisors have voted to abandon all but two cable lines in a move to trim the annual Municipal Railway Co. operating deficit.

In conjunction with "Women's Week," a special 12-page edition of the Spartan Daily which will be devoted to fashions will be published tomorrow. This is the first special edition of the paper this quarter.

US Aboutfaces On Indochina Red Problem

"We will not permit Indochina to fall to the Communists," Dr. William H. Vatcher, assistant professor of political science, said yesterday when asked about the recent developments in Indochina.

President Eisenhower said that he did not wish to intervene in their affairs, but it is fairly evident that intervention hardly can be avoided, Vatcher said.

"Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has already said that the United States will extend aid if necessary." And today's development, the sending of 105 American aircraft technicians to Indochina, attests to the fact that aid will be sent, Vatcher added.

"The problem," he explained, "is a child of World War II at the time of the Japanese surrender." Japan gave Indochina her independence, but France wanted and obtained control of the country.

"Indochina presently wants her independence," he said. The United States did not recognize this at first, but when they did, France was unwilling to move out of the country.

"Now the shoe is on the other foot," Vatcher said, explaining that France presently wants to move out of Indochina, but due to the threat of communist infiltration in that area, the United States is opposed to this.

MCCARTHY SPEAKS

SAN MATEO, Calif., Feb. 10 — U.S. Senator Joseph R. McCarthy will arrive at San Francisco International airport at 4 p.m. today for his Lincoln Day speech appearance here tonight.

Originally McCarthy's chartered plane was scheduled to arrive late this afternoon from Los Angeles at Palo Alto airport. But, according to an announcement by Harvey Hancock, the senator and his wife will arrive at the San Francisco airport, where he will hold a 4:15 p.m. press conference.

SLIGHTLY LOWER AT CAL

BERKELEY, Calif., Feb. 10 — First day registration for the spring semester at the University of California was slightly lower than last year, according to a university spokesman.

AWS Honors Sportsmanship

"Sportsmanship Day" is being observed today by women students.

A water carnival, including a ballet, a diving exhibition and relays for experienced and novice swimmers will be featured this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Women's gym, announced Karin Johnson, chairman of "Women's Week," yesterday.

Bev Bispo will give a diving exhibition. Other participants will be members of the WAA Swim club.

All women students are invited to attend the program, and there will be swimming for any students desiring to swim after the program, she said.

For the past few days, the women on campus have been observing "Service Day," and "Professional Day." Yesterday they were treated to an all-knit fashion show.

Tomorrow, members of the Associated Women Students will submit articles to the Spartan Daily pertaining to the different WAA functions during the year.

Athlete Work-Aid Fund Drying Up

By BILL SHANDS

The Work Aid Fund, which helps student athletes by giving them campus work, is expected to be exhausted in about two months, according to Bill Hubbard, director of athletics, who says that he may have to ask for money from the Student Council to supplement the fund.

IFC Votes Kappa Tau a Member, 10-2

Kappa Tau was voted a full-fledged member of the campus Inter-Fraternity Council by a vote of 10-2, climaxing an hour-long discussion at an IFC meeting last night at the Sigma Pi fraternity house, according to Ken Mitchell, IFC president.

"Kappa Tau is now looking forward to better relations with other fraternities," according to Roy Hodges, one of the Kappa Tau IFC representatives present at the meeting.

The possibility of Kappa Tau affiliating itself with a national fraternity was also discussed, according to Hodges, who stated that several national fraternities were being considered and when one finally was selected it would be an "asset to the campus and to the other fraternities."

Kappa Tau representatives who attended the meeting were Marv Schmidt, junior representative; Tom Jost, President Lynn Marks and Jack Sheberies, alumni president, according to Hodges.

A Spartan Daily reporter attending the meeting was asked to leave on the recommendation of Dean Stanley Benz, IFC advisor who said that a reporter might make the Kappa Tau men nervous, according to IFC President Mitchell. The reporter left and was later given the story by Mitchell over the telephone.

Group To Observe Brotherhood Week

Brotherhood Week, sponsored by the College Religious Council and Spartan Oriocci, will be celebrated nationally and on San Jose State College's campus from Sunday through Feb. 20, according to Leslie Hannaford, co-chairman for Brotherhood Week committee of the Student Y. Observances begin Sunday.

To highlight the week on campus, Frank Quinn, San Francisco associate secretary of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, will speak and lead a discussion on "Faith in One Another" Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in E118.

Brotherhood Week has been defined as "a time when we seek to gain further understanding of our relations with one another and to re-examine and rededicate ourselves to the basic principles of our religious heritage and our democracy as they apply to human rights and personal relationships." Starting Brotherhood Week will be a quarterly meeting of "Fellowship Church" at the Grace Baptist Church Sunday evening, according to Jim Martin, executive secretary of the Student Y.

Ed Stallings will direct the Negro choir from Taylor Memorial Church of Oakland and G. Arthur Casaday, pastor of the First Congregational Church in Palo Alto will be the speaker for the evening.

Plan SC Pact

Santa Clara and SJS student officers will hold another meeting Tuesday at Santa Clara and a pact similar to that between SJS and COP may result although it will not be "as extensive," according to Ken Mitchell, Inter-fraternity council president.

According to Hubbard, money for the fund is supplied by a portion of football game receipts and contributions by the Spar-Tens, a community booster club. The club donated $4,000 to the fund last year, Hubbard said.

The main reason the fund is short, Hubbard stated, is that SJS made only $5,000 from the SJS-California game. They had estimated that the SJS share would be $15,000. Rain during the SJS-Stanford game caused gate receipts to be the lowest in history between the two schools and further added to the deficit.

Hubbard stated that he told the Student Council they were making a big gamble in estimating gate receipts for these games. He said he thought the Council "understood" that they were making this gamble.

He was informed at the time that the Student Council would try to reserve some money in case these receipts were not as large as estimated, Hubbard said.

Shunji Ito, Rally committee chairman, stated in the Student Council meeting yesterday that the Work Aid Fund is from $4,000 to $5,000 below the estimated figure.

Hubbard said that if the funds become exhausted, as he expects, he will report this fact to the Athletic Advisory board who will authorize him to request the money from the Student Council.

The fund was established to pay student athletes for doing odd jobs around the campus. A limit of 50 students can be employed under the fund. These students can work a maximum of 50 hours a month at $1.50 per hour or $75 per month, according to F. Glenn "Tiny" Hartman, director of physical education.

New System Meeting Topic

The first of a series of meetings between the college Teacher Education committee and representatives of surrounding high schools to discuss the effect on teacher training of the change to the semester system was held Tuesday, according to Dr. James C. DeVoss, executive dean.

Dr. DeVoss stated that the purpose of the meetings is to discuss the views on the change of the college committee and the high school executives who work with Education department graduates.

In attendance at the meeting yesterday were representatives from high schools in San Jose, Palo Alto and Campbell. Members of the Teacher Education committee present at the discussion were Dr. William G. Sweeney, Dr. William R. Rogers, Dr. G. W. Ford, Dr. Heber A. Setzin, Dr. Harry T. Jensen and Dean DeVoss.

Tentatively scheduled are a March 2 meeting of the committee and the presidents and counselors of surrounding JC's and a March 4 meeting of the group and high school principals.

Funds Discussed

President John T. Wahlquist, E. S. Thompson, business manager, and Dean of Instruction Fred F. Harclerod returned today from a two-day conference with Department of Education and Department of Finance officials in Sacramento.

They were invited to the Capitol to discuss funds for SJS proposed by the governor in his budget.

Entertainment For the Troops?

There once was a time at good old Sparta when some of the bigger names in the musical world were not reluctant to show their smiling pussies upon this campus for the purposes of entertaining the troops.

It was always a good deal because the bands and entertainers were willing to play a few numbers in Morris Dailey auditorium during a stray afternoon just for promotion. They always went away happy because the Spartans showed up en force and raised the roof shouting approval.

But alas, the big names, even the little names, deserted poor little Sparta and returned nevermore. At least none's been around here (outside of Jerry Gray) for the past year.

Well, our chance has come to try to get some of the big names back on the campus.

According to a recent press release, "the greatest single package of modern jazz ever assembled, Stan Kenton's orchestra, June Christy, Erroll Garner, Charlie Parker and Dizzy Gillespie . . . will appear in the Bay Area at the end of February . . . for the Festival of Modern Jazz."

Perhaps, with the aid of the Social Affairs committee, some of these jazz jumpers can be induced to come back to our fair campus. At least it's worth a try.

'Affairs of Anatol' Ending; 2 Nights To See Production

Lights will dim, the huge red book-cover will slowly swing open and an eager audience will see the six episodes that make up the play, "Affairs of Anatol," tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the Little Theatre. Tomorrow night's presentation will be the last of the five night run, according to John Kerr, director.

Viennese waltzes and 19th century costumes set the scene for the story of a young man-about-town and his many lovely ladies. The play was written by Arthur Schnitzler.

BOBBY DRISCOLL

The Wesley Foundation of San Jose State College will sponsor Christopher Fry's production "The Boy with a Cart" tonight at 8 p.m. in the First Methodist church.

Bobby Driscoll, who has starred in such films as "Treasure Island," "So Dear To My Heart" and "Peter Pan," will be the featured performer.

The Methodist Conference of Southern California and Arizona has taken the first step in America to bring better professional drama into the service of the church. The Lutheran Church, in its record-breaking film "Martin Luther," has pioneered in the field of fine motion pictures; now a church organization is bringing first run legitimate theater into the community as a form of worship service.

The company has been appearing in this play since January 1953, touring the Southern California area and playing in a different church each performance.

They will be in San Jose for tonight's performance only; after which they will go to Carmel. This is to be the only performance in Santa Clara County.

The cast includes narrators Ed Rees and James Wheaton, neighbors Elizabeth Wolfe, Sarah Gates, Hal Bokar, Dick Tretter and George Carlisle. Minna Caldwell plays the mother, and Bobby Driscoll is in the leading role of Cuthman.

Tickets are now on sale for $1 in the Library Arch, First Methodist Church and by Wesley Foundation members, according to Harry K. Miller, director of the Wesley Foundation.

Thrust and Parry

Soph Class Not Dead

Dear Thrust and Parry:

(This letter is directed to Mr. Gilpatrick, Mr. Fletcher, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Zimmerman and others like them.)

You're right, the sophomores aren't a "dead class." It was statements from some of you, I'm afraid misinformed, members that made me stop and wonder. Such statements as "wait until you're sophomores," and "that's because you're freshmen" encouraged my letter of Friday, Feb. 5.

I, and undoubtedly some other former doubters, know that you're a live class by your enthusiasm in backing your class. Please forgive me for my seemingly resentful letter. My sincere hope was to "stimulate a friendly rivalry between our classes and to prove your loyalty and spirit." I don't regret having written the letter as I feel the outcome was successful and that both classes will prosper by it—even if it was at my expense.

I don't have any feeling of resentment toward you, in fact, I'm proud of your spunk. You're the real sparks of the sophomore class and as long as you, and others like you, support and defend your class it will remain a "live class."

I only hope our class has enough loyal supporters so that we may follow in your footsteps.

On behalf of the freshman class, I want to wish you the best of luck on your coming "faculty show" and thank you for your most kind offer of help.

An admirer,
NATALIE FANCHER,
Freshman Vice President

Boxer John Freitas Will Fight 156-lb. Class Against WSC

Boxing Coach Julie Menendez announced yesterday that John Freitas definitely will move up to the 156-lb. division in the crucial dual meet with the rough Washington State Cougars in Spartan gym Saturday night. This leaves only the 147-lb. starter of the Golden Raider line-up in doubt.

Spartans Have Speed Afield Plus Defense

This year's varsity diamond prospects have completed three weeks of drills with the squad cut to 25 players last week. Williams hopes to carry 25 men this season as he has at present a 28-game schedule with two more contests in the planning stage.

Entry Blanks Available for Novice Bouts

Entry blanks for the Sixth Annual San Jose State Novice wrestling tournament are available now in the Men's PE office, according to Wrestling Coach Hugh Mumby.

Entrants for the three-day event starting on Feb. 22 are urged to fill out the entry forms as soon as possible. Deadline for all entries is Friday, Feb. 19.

No one will be allowed to enter the tourney without having a check-up by the college health office, Mumby warned.

Lettermen in high school or college will not be allowed to compete.

Menendez expected to place veteran Al White in this position, but White recently was called to Southern California by the illness of his sister. If White isn't back in time, sophomore Neal Hill will get the nod.

Bobby Harris, a junior who was a victor in his only bout last year, will make his initial appearance when he meets WSC's veteran Eddie Olson in the 125-lb. class.

Others in the local line-up include the following: Joe Rodriguez, 132-lb.; Vic Harris, 139-lb.; Dick Bender, 165-lb.; Tom Stern, 178-lb.; and Dave Fanner, heavy-weight.

An injury to Danny Hayes forced Menendez to move each boxer up a notch in the weights from the 139-lb. division through the light-heavy spot.

Such a move is, of course, a gamble. It is possible, however, that it may strengthen the Spartans' chances of upsetting the highly favored Cougars.

Raiders, Hornets In Non-Conference Contest Tomorrow

San Jose State, basking in the glory of a three-game cage winning streak, set their sights on making Sacramento State, Friday's home opponent, victim No. 4 in the victory march.

The Hornets come to town sporting a record of six wins and nine losses. Among their victims, the Hornets have defeated Washington State, 45-44, Cal Poly, 55-52, and Fresno State, 60-54. Fresno reversed its loss in a re-match, 70-67.

Intramural Play Continues Tonight

The third night of action in the intramural basketball league this week takes place tonight in the Spartan gym.

Contests will begin at 7 o'clock with Theta Chi scheduled to meet Pi Kappa Alpha in one tilt, and the KKK going against Clark's Cagers in the other.

Eight o'clock events will be between Sigma Nu and Alpha Tau Omega in the fraternity division and Phi Epsilon Kappa and the Wetbacks in the independent circuit.

Rael, Box K, Stanford University, Calif.

JOHN FREITAS

"If Bender could upset Washington State's NCAA champion, Gordy Gladson, and if Rodriguez could do the same against PCI title holder Gil Inaba, San Jose would have a chance of taking the meet," Menendez declared.

Local interest is high for this important dual-meet between the two undefeated ring squads. Washington State alumni in the area have reserved a block of 30 ring-side seats for the attraction.

SJS Wrestlers To Face Three Foes in Southland

San Jose State grapplers invade San Diego tonight to launch a three-day mat tour in the southland that will see them trying for victories at San Diego Naval Training Center, San Diego State and UCLA.

The SDNTC meet, at 8 o'clock tonight, will be a rematch for the Spartans. The middies sunk Coach Hugh Mumby's squad, 20-13, here Jan. 13. The Raiders were able to salvage pins in the 157-lb. and 177-lb. classes and took a decision in the 123-lb. affair.

For the San Joseans, Pacific Coast Intercollegiate champ Dick Francis will shift to the 167-lb. weight from his usual 177-lb. position because of the absence from the line-up of Tom Stern who will once again have boxing duties. Gus Talbot will move into Francis' regular spot for the Mumby-men.

The Raiders will be without representation in the heavy-weights as Dick Fleeger and Jerry Ruse did not make the trip.

Against SDS tomorrow night, the Spartans will go into unknown territory. The Aztecs have not been tested by Raider wrestlers but the southerners are known to have a star in the 147-lb. division, Joe Gigletto. Pete Herder of the locals will oppose Gigletto.

The UCLA match is a natural

Mumby will take his boys into the Westwood gym Saturday afternoon to face the powerful Bruins. Only one man is a cinch to win. That's Jack Ellena, Bruin heavy-weight contender, who placed fourth last year in the NCAA wrestling finals. Ellena, star line-man on the UCLA football squad, will be unopposed.

The Raiders, who have been victorious four times and suffered four setbacks, will count on Kay Toyoto, George Lao, Ron Stingley, Utley, Francis and Talbot.

A CAMPUS-TO-CAREER CASE HISTORY

He had a head start

It took a class reunion to show Ed Mahler, '50, that all first jobs are not alike. He tells us why. (Reading time: 33 seconds)

The class reunion at his alma mater, Swarthmore College, was an eye-opener for Ed Mahler. The talk among the Class of '50 switched to jobs. Ed had taken it for granted that everybody was happy with his work.

Then he found that some of his classmates had had two or three jobs since leaving school. Others had kept the same one but weren't satisfied. By sticking with his first job and intending to make it a lifetime career, Ed suddenly discovered he had a head start.

After having graduated with a B.A. in Economics, he went to work for Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania in 1950. He reports he chose the Telephone Company because it seemed to offer the best chance for a career.

After a year of training in which he worked in each of the departments — installing telephones, handling business contacts with customers — Ed felt he had a good look at the entire company.

He was assigned to the Traffic Department, which has the responsibility for seeing that customers' calls are handled efficiently. The job included personnel work in addition to developing better operating methods and practices. He was quickly put on his own.

Now Ed has been transferred to the job of estimating the amount and type of new equipment which will be needed in central offices as their customers increase.

Ed points out that projecting himself into the future isn't anything new. That's precisely what he attempted to do when he chose his first—and only—job.

Ed Mahler's job is with an operating company of the Bell System. But there are also jobs for engineers, arts and science and business administration graduates with Western Electric, Sandia Corporation, and Bell Telephone Laboratories.

US Navy Hospital Sailors in Japan Dig Out Dough; Add to SJS Enrollment

Officers and corpsmen of an American Navy hospital in Japan dug down in their pockets and as a result, Miss Hisayo Kawahara will enroll in San Jose State next quarter, according to a United Press release.

The story began when Miss Kawahara was working as an interpreter at the hospital. Here she met Lt. Cmdr. James Keating, a hospital officer.

It was Cmdr. Keating, now in San Francisco, who first had the idea of bringing the 27-year-old Japanese girl to this country to go to college.

He started collecting a fund for this purpose and it wasn't long before the money was raised and Miss Kawahara was told the good news. Not only did she get to come to the United States, but she could enroll in any American college she chose.

And where did she decide to come? To San Jose State College.

Miss Kawahara will leave Feb. 11 on the liner President Wilson. She plans to enroll in San Jose State to study psychology.

Movie Friday

The date of the second weekly feature of the Science Movie hour has been changed to Friday at 1:30 p.m. in Room S216 because of a lack in student interest, according to James Craig, assistant professor of bacteriology.

Friday's movie hour features a 40-minute film in color, "Kapa-A," which deals with the production and processing of sugar.

Students Enter Stanford Debate

Second round of the Northern California Forensics Assn. discussions on congressional reorganization will be held tonight at 7 o'clock at Stanford, according to Lawrence Mouat, adviser.

Six students who will represent San Jose plan to discuss congressional structure, procedures and balance of power. These round table discussions are intended to help students prepare for the coming Student Congress, Mouat said. Students from San Jose are Howard Streifford, Barney Chapman, Joyce Osborne, Janet Ellingson, Barbara McGee and Dwane King.

Talk Today Tells Of Teacher Hiring

"The Teacher Hiring Interview" will be discussed and enacted by Dr. Carl Rich, professor of education, at a California Student Teachers Assn. meeting today at 3:30 p.m. in Room E118.

Dr. Rich will portray an administrator who is hiring teachers and Bill Stebbins, student, will take the part of a teacher looking for a job.

It is urged by Clyde Williamson, president, that all members who would like to go to the regional conference at Mills College March 6 be present.

Teaching Jobs Lost, Partial Personal Files

"Lost—some good jobs" is a classified ad Miss Doris K. Robinson might submit on behalf of many teaching credential candidates who have not completed their personal files in the Placement office.

Miss Robinson, director of teacher placement, said yesterday that many prospective teachers are "losing out" on interviews with school administrators because of this negligence. Most of the incomplete folders lack recommendations, according to Miss Robinson.

She also pointed out that many new calls are received daily so that candidates should check with her office regularly.

Openings are available in nearly every climate area, she stated, including recent listings in a desert region. Two positions are open in rural areas for husband and wife teams with elementary school credentials, she said.

Co-Rec Offers All Free Food, Dance

All men and women are invited to a free Co-Rec tonight from 7:30 until 10 o'clock in the Women's gym. Dee Chandler, publicity chairman, announced yesterday.

Badminton, volleyball, ping pong and social dancing will be provided during the evening, she said.

Free refreshments will be served.
